

AVI Attended the ASEAN-China Vision Group

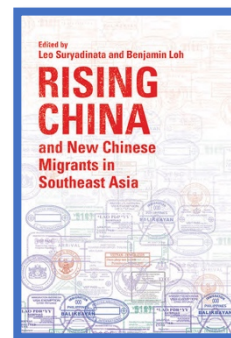

Dr. Chheang Vannarith, President of AVI, attended the meeting of the ASEAN-China Vision Group to further deepen ASEAN-China Comprehensive Strategic Partnership. Strengthening open and inclusive multilateralism, maintaining the Asia moment, and promoting Asian vision/wisdom are critical to regional peace and prosperity. ASEAN Centrality must be maintained and promoted.

AVI and the Australian Embassy Co-organised Roundtable Discussion on “China’s Foreign Policy After the 20th Party Congress”

On 7 December 2022, AVI, in collaboration with the Australian Embassy in Phnom Penh, co-organised a roundtable discussion on “China’s Foreign Policy After the 20th Party Congress” at Jaya Smart Hotel, Phnom Penh, Cambodia. The discussion assessed some key outcomes of the 20th Party Congress of the Communist Party of China (CPC) and its foreign policy implications towards Southeast Asia and beyond.

AVI Contributed a Book Chapter

Dr. Chheang Vannarith, President of AVI, has contributed a book chapter on “Cambodian Perceptions of China: A Chinese Learners' Perspective”.

Read more:

<https://bookshop.iseas.edu.sg/publication/7827>

AVI Presented the Co-edited Book at “5G and Cambodia’s Digital Future”

On 7 December 2022, Mr. Chhem Siriwat, Director of the Centre For Inclusive Digital Economy (CIDE) at AVI, Mr. Ou Phannarith and Dr. Chea Vatana, Research Fellows at CIDE, made a presentation about their co-edited book, Cambodia in Cyberspace, at the “5G and Cambodia’s Digital Future” event, organised by the US Embassy.

AVI Meets the Korea Rural Economic Institute (KREI)

On 14 December 2022, the AVI team led by Dr. Chheng Kimlong, Vice-President and Director of the Centre For Governance Innovation and Democracy (CGID), had a meeting with the Korea Rural Economic Institute (KREI) on integrated farming and rural economic development in rural Cambodia through joint research.

A Travelling Style of Cambodian Stateman, Samdech Techo Hun Sen

Mr. Sim Vireak, Strategic Advisor to AVI, shared his view on Prime Minister Hun Sen's proactive diplomacy and foreign policy.

Read more:

<https://www.asianvision.org/archives/16042>

Think Tank 2022 Public Lecture

Think Tank 2022 Public Lecture Series:
Global Economy and Geographies of Production during Crises

Link: <https://fb.watch/hIEILl11m/>

AVI-SDGs Dialogue

AVI SDGs Dialogue Series Eps 19:
Promoting Healthy Lives and Well-Being for Sustainable Development in Cambodia

Link: <https://fb.watch/hB3lvN64u-/>

AVI Joined the Workshop on “Conceptualizing Vulnerable Deltas in Southeast Asia”

From 6-9 December, Dr. Ngo Sitthykun, Director of the Centre for Sustainable Development Studies (CSDS) of AVI, and Mr. Sok Chansophea, Researcher at CSDS, joined the workshop on “Conceptualizing Vulnerable Deltas in Southeast Asia” and paid a site visit to Pathumthani Province, Thailand. It was conducted by the East-West Centre (EWC) and co-organised by Centre for Social Development Studies of the Faculty of Political Science of Chulalongkorn University and China Environment Forum.

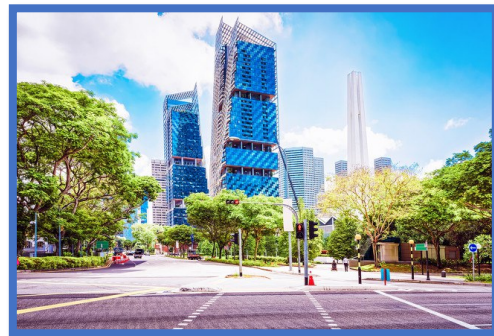

SPM Hun Sen Received the “Distinguished World Leader Lifetime Achievement Award”

On 19 December 2022, Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen, Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia, received the “Distinguished World Leader Lifetime Achievement Award” from the Global Chinese Economic and Technology Summit and the Strategic Institute for Asia Pacific

(KSI). This is not the first award that Samdech Techo Hun Sen won. He has also received different honorary doctorates and awards, as well as medals, from various institutions around the world.

AVI Shared Key Outcomes of the ASEAN Defence Ministers’ Meeting-Plus

Dr. Chheang Vannarith, President of AVI, told China Daily that a key outcome of the ASEAN Defence Ministers’ Meeting-Plus was the spirit of togetherness and cooperation. “Confidence-building measures and preventive diplomacy have been strengthened,” he said.

Link:

<https://www.asianvision.org/archives/16060>